Your 2015–2016 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. You are required to complete this form if someone in the student's parent's household received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as food stamps) any time during the 2013 or 2014 calendar years. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you and your parents reported on your FAFSA and make any necessary changes.

The following person(s) in the parent's household received SNAP benefits in 2013 or 2014:

____________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Note: If the Student Financial Services Office at North Shore Community College has reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, the institution may require documentation from the agency that issued SNAP benefits in 2013 or 2014.

Certification of Signatures
Each person signing this form certifies that all of the information reported on it is complete and correct. The student and one parent must sign and date.

STUDENT'S SIGNATURE                     DATE

PARENT'S SIGNATURE                      DATE

WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this form, you may be fined, sentenced to jail, or both.
