The Application Process Checklist

Initial when complete	Required Documentation
	1. NSCC Application for Admission Complete the application for the year for which you are applying; regardless of whether you are a new or current student (a previously submitted application does not count). Once you submit your application, the remaining required documents (below) must be attached to your application.
	2. ATI Maternal Newborn &amp; Pediatric Care All LPN to RN candidates are required to take the ATI exams in Maternal Newborn and Pediatric Care exams. Applicants are limited to two attempts within a year (September 1 - August 31), regardless of the testing site and program to which they are applying. Students must score at proficiency level 1 or higher. To schedule and pay for the exam,  Visit: https://www2.registerblast.com/northshore/Exam/List ATI inquiries may be directed to: TEAS@northshore.edu  The preferred site for the ATI Maternal Newborn and Pediatric Nursing exams is North Shore Community College. Online exams are not accepted at this time. Students whose score reports reflect that they have tested more than two times or at another location other than NSCC must also submit an official transcript from ATI: https://atitesting.com/ati_store/ Additional charges may apply.  NSCC reserves the right to verify all score reports for exams taken in testing locations other than NSCC. Exams taken at other locations must adhere to proctoring requirements with a secured browser. Applicants are limited to two testing attempts within an academic year (September 1– August 31), regardless of the testing site.
	3. Essay A word-processed essay written in the English language must be attached for the year in which you are applying.  Please discuss why you would like to advance your education and pursue a career as a registered nurse. What qualities do you feel will make you a good candidate for the North Shore Community College Nurse Education Program? Identify strategies you will use to ensure success in the Program. Please make sure you answer all components of this question.
	4. Employer Reference Letter of recommendation completed by a nursing manager or supervisor must be submitted on employer letterhead detailing a minimum of 6 months of employment as an LPN. Your letter must be in a sealed envelope with the recommenders signature across the seal.
