The Leadership Mosaic

January Supervisors' Connection

Summary: Every interaction with a manager or leader produces an imaginary and individual tesserae, some colorful and polished and others uneven with jagged edges. Throughout your career, these pieces coalesce to create your personal leadership mosaic, a unique stylized pattern of management on display to all those you lead. In this session, we'll discover that leadership and management is both a science….and an art.

Workshop Takeaways:

- Recognize the importance of leadership in the workplace.
- Evaluate your personal leadership style.
- Reflect on your interactions with former and current leaders and managers.
